

These courses are designed to enrich your knowledge as you explore primary care and public health "best practices," competencies and collaborative work. The knowledge gained from these courses will help current RNs to practice to the full scope of their licenses in community-based primary-care teams.

Register HERE

For more information contact:
Elizabeth.Marentette@wayne.edu

WAYNE STATE
College of Nursing

Attention RNs:

Earn CE Contact Hours Online FREE Nursing Continuing Education Courses Available

Course topics offered include:

- Precepting 101 (2 CEUs)
- Primary Care in the 21st Century (2 CEUs)
- Public Health Past/Present/Future (2 CEUs)
- Integration of Primary Care and Public Health (2 CEUs)
- Current State of Transitions of Care with Chronic Disease Management (2 CEUs)
- Mental Health and Substance Abuse-What's New in the 21st Century (2 CEUs)
- Social Determinants of Health and Health Disparities (2 CEUs)
- Program Development/Health Program Planning/ Program Evaluation (2 CEUs)
- Ambulatory Care: any RNs Not Working in an Acute Care Setting (2 CEUs)
- Hospice and Palliative Care: What Every Nurse Should Know (2 CEUs)
- Quality improvement: Better Patient Outcomes, Better System Performance, Better Professional De-velopment (2 CEUs)
- Population Health (2 CEUs)
- Interprofessional Education (3 CEUs)
- Cultural Competence (2 CEUs)

This nursing continuing professional development activity was approved by the Ohio Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation. (OBN-001-91)

Grant Funded by Health Resources Services Administration, Nurse Education, Practice, Retention and Quality Grant; Primary Care Community Health Immersion in Detroit (PC-CHIP in the D)-No: #UK1HP31702

HRSA
Health Resources & Services Administration