

BECOME AN AHEC SCHOLAR

The AHEC Scholars program prepares students to more effectively enter the health professions workforce. It is designed for applicants who have a strong interest in providing care to those living in rural and medically underserved areas across Michigan. AHEC Scholars offers online learning modules and community-based experiences designed to give health professions students a deeper understanding the role of the community in patient care.

Benefits of becoming an AHEC Scholar include:

- Opportunities for paid conference attendance
- Professional networking opportunities
- Competitive resume building
- Interdisciplinary opportunities to work with other students across the state in urban and rural health environments

Eligible Applicants:

- Must be in the final 2 years in an accredited health professions program
- Must be available to participate for 2 years
- Must be willing to participate in 40 hours of online learning and 40 hours of team-based community experiences each year
